

Noyce STEM Scholarships

for Western Kansas

National Science Foundation
WHERE DISCOVERIES BEGIN

FORT HAYS STATE
UNIVERSITY

Forward thinking. World ready.

Noyce Summer Scholar Program

- A six week stipend at $400 a week ($2,400)
- work in the FHSU Science and Mathematics Education Institute with its summer programs for area youth
- engaged in teaching and educational outreach in STEM
- participate in seminars and talk with master teachers about careers in teaching

Noyce Teacher Leader Program

- competitive scholarship program for students who have obtained at least junior-level status
- become an outstanding science or mathematics teacher serving in a high-needs district
- $12,000 scholarships
- travel to conferences
- support over the first three years of teaching to transition from student to a Teacher-Leader in science or mathematics in the employing district

Scholars Obligations

- Complete a major in a science or mathematics discipline and a major in secondary or elementary education.
- Participate in Noyce Teacher-Leader activities during the academic year.
- Enroll in the Noyce Teacher-Leader certificate courses available each semester.
- Complete two-years of teaching in a high needs district for each year a scholarship is accepted within eight years of program completion.

Noyce Scholars Program at FHSU

- Rural Education Seminar
- Rural Field Experience
- STEM Ed club
- Travel to conferences
- Support the new teachers

For more Information

- Go to www.fhsu.edu/noyce
- E-mail eflegleiter@fhsu.edu
- Call 785-628-4561